

Announcement of Position Opening

Moog Italiana S.r.l. founded in 1975, and part of Moog Inc., a world leader in providing high-performance motion control solutions, research candidates for the position of:

Production Manager

in Bergamo Site

The position is responsible for managing the Operational performance of manufacturing, supply chain and customer service (Production, Materials Management, suppliers and customer service) in accordance to the site strategic plan and the sales budget with key emphasis on business performance, customer satisfaction.

The incumbent ensures timely deliveries of high quality products on standards of operational excellence. He ensures high efficiency with a minimum of disruptions through careful management of people, equipment and keeping health and safety as well as environmental standards.

The incumbent is responsible of the definition and the successful execution of the Production Master Schedule and is also responsible of its monitoring through the periodic measurement of the relevant metrics

The incumbent is responsible of product costs

Principal accountabilities

- To ensure Customer Satisfaction by order fulfilment on time to the required quality levels
- To manage and coordinate the Manufacturing process
- To develop and execute effective manufacturing systems that lead to best industry practice
- To guarantee the continuity plan managing the maintenance plan.
- To Report regularly to management on business performances
- To Manage internal and external supply chain
- To generate and maintain a valid, achievable Master Schedule that support the business targets and performances of the site
- Responsible of key improvement projects aligned with the Moog Bergamo strategic plan (like Shop floor control, Procurement improvements, etc)
- Directly responsible of the execution and the maintenance of a robust and reliable shop floor control process
- Inputs and maintains information to facilitate Rough Cut Capacity Planning and Capacity Requirements Planning, analyzing and presenting results for review.
- Responsible for the costs of each work order and to check eventual inconsistencies and make sure costs are aligned with commercial quotations. Understand eventual discrepancies and react in accordance with management
- To implement best practice from the industry in planning, inventory systems and delivery performance
- To guarantee the motivation and training of own reports, establishes their responsibilities and targets, verifies their results, evaluates their performance
- To Co-operate with Quality and Lean manager, R&D and Product engineer supervisor for continuous process improvement and be part of the site management team
- Maintain appropriate health, safety and environmental standards
- Maintenance

Minimum requirements required

- Relevant degree in Engineering
- 5 years of progressive experience in operational management role
- Proven general capabilities in Production Planning
- Knowledge of SAP
- Good knowledge of English
- Solid MRP expertise
- Knowledge of the fundamentals of manufacturing and control process system

Preferential requirements

- The incumbent must be a strong leader of people and team builder
- The individual must be an excellent communicator at all level both internally and externally
- The individual must possess strong analytical abilities to co-ordinate and manage the complex issues in the procurement process

What to do if interested:

We invite anyone who has the required requirements and is interested in submitting their candidacy directly on our site www.moog.com/careers/ or by sending their c.v. to our e-mail address hr.italy@moog.com

YOU CAN DO THIS

MOOG

Technical challenge | Personal fulfillment | Professional growth | Recognition & respect | The quality of life